Richard has nearly 30 years' experience in the commercial property market, having qualified as a Chartered Surveyor in 1989 while spending his formative years working in London. In 1999 he moved to Yorkshire in order to build the Investment business at St Quintin in Leeds; this soon became CB Richard Ellis where he successfully ran the team for a number of years as Senior Director. Latterly Richard took a position as Director heading the Investment team at Jones Lang LaSalle in Leeds prior to joining Pudney Shuttleworth in 2009.

In the past he has been involved in a number of the regions more significant investment transactions, acting for a range of Fund, Property Company, Developer and Private clients both buying and selling as well as more recently undertaking some asset management work

In addition to private treaty disposals and acquisitions, he has expertise and track record in a number of other more specialist areas including Sale & Leasebacks, Development Funding, Property Swaps, Portfolios and Strategic Asset Advice.

His clients include London & Scottish Investments (now Regional REIT), Columbus Capital, Schreiber Holdings, GMI, Opus North, Buccleuch Group, Speedy Hire, Select Property (Vita Students) and a wide range of other private, national and regional players.
